THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR

SUPREME COURT BUILDING

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

Winston-Salem, North Carolina

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

May 5, 1939

✓ Mr. Dillard S. Gardner
✓ Mr. Clayton Lee Burrell Charlotte
✓ Mr. Chas. W. Bagby Hickory
✓ Mr. Norman Block Greensboro
✓ Mr. James G. Merrimon. Asheville

Gentlemen:

The Council of the State Bar, at its quarterly meeting in April, authorized the appointment of a special committee on Law Libraries and Publications. In accordance with this authority, I have appointed you gentlemen to serve on such committee and I hope each of you will find it possible to accept. It was contemplated that this committee would cooperate with the Carolina Association of Law Libraries. Mr. Gardner is president of that association at this time and I am also designating him as chairman of the State Bar Committee. Mr. Gardner has done considerable work along the lines contemplated and is particularly well qualified to act in this capacity and I am sure each of you will be glad to cooperate with him fully. I am asking Mr. Gardner to write each of you a letter setting forth the aims of the committee and to allocate the work between you as he and you may think best. I am sure that the Bar will be greatly benefitted by the work of this committee, and I am looking forward to the suggestions you may make.

With high regards to each of you, I am

Cordially yours,

President.
